Player Club of Origin

- Any NEAFL registered player who transferred from a current QAFL club (Club of Origin) to the NEAFL club, or has been a junior registered player at a QAFL club (Under 17 or

- Any anomalies, or where excessive numbers apply, alignment will be determined at the discretion of the AFLQ State Football Operations Manager.
- Any NEAFL registered player who was aligned to a QAFI club the previous year may choose to be automatically realigned to that club without re-entering the mini draft.
 - In the event where an excessive number of players are eligible to nominate a particular QAFI club, players who had been drafted by that club, but was not their club of origin, may be required to re-enter the mini draft.
 - In the event a player has not played in the NEAFL for more than 12 months, but has previously been aligned to a QAFI club, they will be entered back into the mini draft unless the player submits an application to AFL Queensland to be pre-aligned to that QAFI club, in which case AFL Queensland will determine the application in its absolute discretion.
- Players who do not elect to align to their QAFI club of Origin, or the QAFI club they were previously aligned to, will enter the Mini Draft.
- NEAFL 'rookie listed' players will be encouraged to align themselves to QAFI clubs.

1. Order of Selections – Mini Draft

- 1.1 QAFL clubs shall have the right to select a draft player, in turn, in the reverse order of the position in which they finished at the end of the previous Home & Away season ('the selection order').
- 1.2 Players must be allocated a QAFL club via the mini draft. If a QAFL club passes on a 'live' draft selection in the mini-draft that selection falls to the club with the next pick in the draft.
- 1.3 The 'selection order' will be distributed to all clubs prior to the Mini Draft.

2. Players

- 2.1 No officer, agent or servant of a QAFL club shall contact or interview a registered player of an NEAFL Club for the purpose of gaining the services of that player as a footballer without first seeking written permission from the NEAFL Club with which the player is registered.
- 2.2 Player Interchange Agreement rules 1 to 9 herein apply to the NEAFL Primary List of thirty five (35) players.
- 2.3 The AFLQ State Football Operations Manager and/or duly appointed CARD (Clearance and Registration Disputes) committee shall have the final say in any dispute between NEAFL and QAFL clubs.

3. Relegation of Player – other than injury or discipline

- 3.1 Any players whom are relegated (maximum of 4 per round per QAFL club) to the QAFL from the NEAFL, for reasons other than injury or discipline, upon return must play at least one (1) senior game with their QAFL aligned club, unless agreed upon in writing by both NEAFL and QAFL clubs involved. This game must be in the first fixture after relegation. QAFL clubs not selecting relegated NEAFL players in their senior team will incur a fine of 100 units ($500) per breach.
 - In the event a player is omitted from their local NEAFL club, and chooses the following week to play as a top-up player for an AFL club, the player will forfeit the right to be automatically selected in the senior team for their QAFL club should they not be required by the AFL club the following week.
- 3.2 For Round 1 of any QAFL season, a minimum of three (3) NEAFL players, whom are available for selection, must play QAFL senior football at their aligned QAFL club.
- 3.3 A Player whom, after being relegated from the NEAFL team for reason other than injury or discipline, does not gain selection in the QAFL senior team with which he is registered for a period of two (2) consecutive matches may, with the approval of his NEAFL Club, make application for transfer to another QAFL club.

- 3.4 On receipt of an application for transfer of a player under clause 3.3, the AFLQ State Football Operations Manager must offer the services of that player to the club with the next pick in the aligned Mini Draft. However, consideration may also be given to clubs which require further on-field support. This action is taken at the discretion of the AFL State Football Operations Manager and/or CARD committee.
- 3.5 When a NEAFL club has a bye, a maximum of four (4) players only, from the list of twenty-three (23) who played in the game immediately prior to the bye, will be eligible to play for their QAFL club in the bye week.
- 3.6 Any player added to a NEAFL primary list after the initial mini draft will be aligned to a QAFL club at the discretion of the AFLQ State Football Operations Manager.

4. Eligibility of players from NEAFL Clubs to play for QAFL clubs

- 4.1 If a QAFL club has the opportunity to select but declines to select a NEAFL player, the QAFL club will not have the opportunity to further select a draft player until all other clubs have had the opportunity to make a selection in the order of selection referred to in section 1, 'Order of Selections - Mini Draft'.
- 4.2 A QAFL club which has selected, or has the right to select, a draft player ('the first club') may agree with another QAFL club ('the second club') to exchange the draft player, which the first club has selected or has the right to select, for a registered player of the second club or for a draft player which the second club has either selected or has the right to select. Exchanges must be completed within 1 hour of the draft concluding.
- 4.3 Before selecting a draft player, a QAFL club and the aligned NEAFL club must take into consideration the interests of the player, the interests of the NEAFL club (as the case may be) and the interests of the QAFL competition having due regard to the desire of the QAFL to maintain a highly competitive competition.
- 4.4 A NEAFL player, whom is ruled unfit by a NEAFL medical officer to play in a round of NEAFL matches, will be ineligible for selection and must not be listed on the Team Sheet of any QAFL club in any match in the concurrent round of QAFL matches.
- 4.5 If a NEAFL draft player desires to transfer from the QAFL club with which he registered because of a dispute with the club, he must give written notice of such dispute, including full and complete details of the dispute, to the AFLQ State Football Operations Manager and to the club. The Operations Manager and/or CARD will deal with the dispute as deemed fit.
- 4.6 In relation to rule 4.5 above, any NEAFL draft player who desires to transfer from the QAFL club with which he was registered in the period between the mini draft and Round 1 of the QAFL season will be allocated to another QAFL club via a lottery system as determined by the State Football Operations Manager.

5. Player Payments

5.1 It is acknowledged and agreed by each NEAFL & QAFL club, with whom a player is listed by or contracted to, that the following will be the remuneration for each contracted NEAFL player who plays a QAFL match.

Paid by NEAFL Club	Paid by QAFL Club
QAFL Senior Match (Primary List) – Up to $100	QAFL Senior Match (Primary List) – $0
QAFL Reserves Match (Primary List) - $0	QAFL Reserves Match (Primary List) - $0

- All NEAFL rookie listed players are to be paid by their respective QAFL club for games played in the QAFL Senior or Reserves competition, as negotiated by the player and the club. NEAFL clubs do not pay rookie listed players for these games.

6. Finals Eligibility

- 6.1 When a NEAFL club is competing in a finals round on the same weekend as an aligned QAFL club finals match, the NEAFL player will be eligible to play in the QAFL match irrespective of qualification.
- 6.2 Any player, who is primary listed with or contracted to a NEAFL club, must play a total of not less than three (3) matches for premiership points in the Home & Away season in a team or teams of the QAFL, before being eligible to compete in the QAFL finals in that season.
- 6.3 The eligibility of a player to participate in the QAFL finals in any season will be determined by the AFL Queensland Rules & Regulations.
- 6.4 Where a NEAFL primary listed player is not selected by his NEAFL club, and plays for an AFL club on the same weekend, this game will count towards finals eligibility for their aligned QAFL club in the senior grade (not reserves).
- 6.5 National U18 Championship & U18 Academy matches that fall on the same weekend as a scheduled QAFL fixture will count towards the finals eligibility for the player's aligned QAFL club (seniors only, not reserves) for NEAFL primary listed players.
- 6.6 If there is any conflict between this clause 6 and the QAFL Rules, then the QAFL Rules will prevail.

7. Indemnity

- 7.1 The NEAFL Club, with which the player is registered, must indemnify the aligned QAFL club, with which a player plays a match, against all loss and damage sustained directly or indirectly by the QAFL club as a consequence of the player playing a match with that club except where the loss or damage is sustained by virtue of the QAFL club's negligence.

8. Inconsistency

- 8.1 Where there is any inconsistency between a NEAFL player contract signed by a player and any contract entered into between the player and the aligned QAFL club, the provisions of the NEAFL player contract will prevail.

9. Suspension of Players

- 9.1 A QAFL club cannot suspend a contracted player of a NEAFL Club without the approval of the NEAFL club and the NEAFL Operations Manager.
- 9.2 Any player who is suspended in the NEAFL competition will be ineligible to win the QAFL competition Best & Fairest in the season in which they serve the suspension.
