AFLQ COMPETITION MANAGER

BRAD MATHESON

2019 was another huge year for AFL in Regional QLD, and the Capricornia Region continued to make massive steps in the progression of our game.

Once again we have been fortunate to have the corporate Partnership with the Frenchville Sports Club and we are thrilled to see this Partnership continuously evolving. We kicked off the year with an AFLX Carnival at the Frenchville Sports Club which was the first of its kind in Queensland and the first time The Frenchville Sports Club facilitated our great game. We were able to continue to grow our exposure at the fantastic facilities of Ryan Park with Youth Girls AFLX Grand Final and later a Youth AFLX Carnival was played as part of the NAIDOC week celebrations.

Our Game Development Team has been hard at it again this year continuing to increase the exposure that we are gaining through School Programs, AUSKICK centres and Community Programs. Regional Manager, Scott Smithwick, has done a mountain of work with his team with promotion and exposure of our game beyond our Region and well into the Central Queensland Communities. This includes engagement in towns such as Blackwater and Emerald nearing 100 participants at their Community AUSKICK centres. The impact this promotion has had on our competition is evident with participation growing yearly and Friday night football surpassing 350 registrations for the first time ever.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the Club Presidents, Coaches, Volunteers and support networks that have done an outstanding job in continuing to develop their Clubs and increasing the presentation of our Game. To our Umpiring department you have again done an outstanding job in ensuring that matches are officiated on a weekly basis.

Finally to all Teams & Umpires that have been rewarded for hard work, reaching this years Grand Final Matches, I wish you all the best of luck and look forward to showcasing our game on the biggest day of the Footballing Calendar.

REGIONAL UMPIRE MANAGER

STEVE MAXWELL

On behalf of all Umpires I would like to thank everyone who has contributed to umpiring in season 2019. All clubs have contributed towards umpiring on occasions and we appreciate the time volunteers provided.

Umpiring within the Capricornia Region has always provided highlights throughout the season and I'm positive this will continue into season 2020. Personally I'm looking forward to working in the region to assist with growth and development of umpires of all disciplines to improve skills and communication within our group.

I would like to thank Damien Mitchelmore (Community Umpires Development Manager) who is always available to provide on going support. Thanks to Brad Matheson who I'm reminding regularly umpiring is always enjoyable and as rewarding as we make it.

A special mention to our Sponsors, Wrapt in Print and Ian Weigh Toyota thank you for your financial support to our group is extremely valued. Moving forward I believe there is also a huge opportunity for woman to become umpires in our region for extra fitness and learning more about our great game, meeting many new people and enjoying the environment which we provide. AFLCUA is also in the process of negotiating a home of our own and individual training center, and a venue for social gatherings, as we have been without since the beginning which no doubt would be extremely beneficial for growth, skills and continued improvement, within the region.

Congratulations also to Lochlan Caldwell from Yeppoon who has been invited to participate at the state U14 Championships in Brisbane during the September month. Lochlan is also completing his on field accreditation for season 2020 and look forward to continue his training and development into Senior Umpiring.

Finally to all clubs, umpires and volunteers who are participating Grand Final Day, our hosts the Panthers Football Club and everyone enjoying the day may the best teams win and everyone can walk away with AFL being the winner within the region.

2019 GRAND FINALS

Youth Football in our Region has continued to flourish of recent years and with some of the local talent on display this year we are set for some exciting times in the future. The talent with in our Region was further reflected this year as we have had, for the first time 4 players selected to represent QLD in their various age divisions. Congratulations to Brooke Sheridan (U12 School Girls), Xavier mason (U15 School Boys), Jayren Willie (U16 Males) & Sara-Jane O'Grady (U18 Females).

Added to these individual honours the success of all our Youth Representative Teams this year at their respective North Queensland Chamionships is further indication to the strength of Youth Football in our Region. The introduction of Youth Girls this year is a great sign for the opportunity for the development of Female Footballers in our Competitions.

In a show of strength through their Youth Footballers, the BITS Saints, Took out a clean sweep at the recent Awards Presentation held at the Frenchville Sports Club with Max Marsh (U13), Jordan Jacobsen (U15) & Mason Gates (U17) taking out the top honour in their respective age groups.

Now for a look at todays matches .....

UNDER 13

THE BITS Saints have shown this year that, when they are able to get their full team together, they can be one of the most damaging sides of the competition. They boast a very even spread across the field with some damaging tall's complementing a good group of small runners. For the Swans they have again continued to grow as the season progressed and have shown true grit to keep themselves in matches. They have been tested through this years finals series but a come from behind win on the road in Gladstone and then holding off a late charge by Brothers has given them 2 good wins and a confidence boost leading into today's match

UNDER 15

These two sides provide class all over the field. Panthers have shown a good mix through the midfield this year which has provided the forwards with plenty of option, the likes of Cooper England taking full advantage of this kicking 100 goals in the home and away season. However the Swans boast a very classy midfield of their own and the potential match ups through the middle of the ground sets the scene for an intense battle today. With both teams boasting great ball movement and plenty of pace it could come down to which defensive unit can stand up and limit the oppositions scoring opportunities

UNDER 17

Undoubtedly the Bulls have been one of the good news stories of the year to go from a couple of years of battling in this age group to progressing all the way through to the Big Dance. Rest assured they won't be happy to leave it at that with some of the most electrifying players in the competition sure to wow the crowd today. The one thing standing in the Bulls way is a classy BITS Saints outfit. Showed great composure in a drawn Semi in what was one of the greatest matches in recent times. They are a very well structured team and seem to be able to just go about their business and get the job done. This has the makings of one of the games of the day

GOLD COAST SUNS

Talent Manager - Jason Torney

The SUNS Academy has increased its members base in 2019 to 400 which coincided with an increase in staffing and resourcing. John Deitz (former Peel Thunder Talent Manager) has been introduced as the North Queensland Talent Coordinator and has made a huge impact to all regions over the past 6 months.

Head Coach of the SUNS Academy male program Andrew Raines lead the U18 squad to its first win in the Academy series which finished top of the ladder against the other Academies and NAB League teams in Victoria.

2019 was a great year for two particular players who took out dual Academy Player of the Year Awards presented at the SUNS Best and Fairest, Connor Budarick from the Gold Coast and Elli Hampson from Townsville.

MATCH PREVIEW

RESERVES

Deja Vu, for the third time! These 2 teams have met in the previous 2 Grand Finals and on both occasions it has been the Saints that have taken home the silverware. The Swans will be looking to make sure this doesn't happen for a third time and look to have a much more balanced team this year that will be hoping to get the Job done. The Swans running game has been their strength, adding some firepower up forward has seen them kick winning scores. The Saints have the bonus of some very experienced players all across the ground that provide great on-field leadership and direction for all those around them, can they make it 3 in a row? This match could go down to the wire and will be a display of who can keep their composure as the game goes on

WOMEN

Going down in 4 consecutive Grand Finals the Panthers finally tasted victory in 2018 and it has only grown their hunger for more success. Their second consecutive undefeated season is reflection of the quality of structure in this group. For the Roo's it is their first Grand Final appearance since 2011 and they will be eager to make the most of this rare opportunity. Boasting some good overhead skills through the middle of the group and constant tackling pressure the Roo's will need to be on their game if they are to limit the Panthers scoring opportunities. Whilst the Panthers have had the edge over the Roos this year the Roos have constantly reduced the margins and kept the Panthers scoring opportunities to a minimum which will be the key if they are to break the undefeated streak of the Panthers

SENIORS

The might of the Yeppoon Swans Senior team has continued on in 2019, will the Panthers be the ones to stop their undefeated run in the last game of the year?

The Swans boast class all over the field lead by an engine room consisting of co-skippers Matt Wallin and Leigh Cossens, 2018 Bernie Gottke Medallist Tom Cossens and 2017 Bernie Gottke Medalist Jamie Garner. It doesn't stop there with 2019 Bernie Gottke Medalist and Leading Goal Kicker, Alex Chapman, providing headaches for defensive units up forward as well as spending time through the mid-field. When teams are able to apply some pressure against the Swans they come up against the likes of Sebastian Kilpatrick-Brazier who, returning from injury, has had a stellar season and ensured that any forward attacks from opposition teams rarely venture past the half-back line.

The Panthers have undoubtedly been the most improved team in the Senior Competition and that has been mainly due to the tight knit group they have been able to form at the Club and their willingness to work hard for each other all over the ground. Players like Jaxson Pringle, Travis Young and Levi Davenport play with their heart on their sleeve and continue to take the challenge on right until the final siren. Sam Pierpoint has been a great addition to the makeup of this squad providing another avenue to goal supporting seasoned veterans Clint Evans and Sam Gudgeon. The return of Matt Ryan this year has been a big boost for the squad and the more matches he has played the more time he has spent through the midfield.

The Panthers are one of the few teams that have been able to take the challenge up to the Swans at stages this year but the challenge is to bring that to the field for a full 4 quarters. Given the slightest opportunity the Swans can make opposition teams hurt on the scoreboard.
